OUTSTANDING CAMPERS

Each tribe at Sequoyah selects an Outstanding Camper for each five-week period. At the end of the first session, James Kimbrough Beaty was named by the Cherokees. Charles Edgar Sellers by the Catawbas, Hubert Julian Philpott, Jr., by the Tuscaroras, and John Mitchell Tufts by the Iroquois.

KIM BEATY

Kim Beaty, 12-year old son of Mrs. Robert Beaty, lives in Criffin, Georgia, and just finished his second summer at Sequoyah. He will be in the seventh grade at the Third Ward School and says that he makes good grades in school.

He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Griffin, where he is active in Sunday School activities. He serves as president of the Pioneer Fellowship in the church.

Kim played the clarinet in the camp band, just as he does in his school band. His other hobbies include tennis and insect collecting. At camp this year he was a Junior Naturalist, a Brave in the Indian tribe, an Archer, and an Intermediate Rider.

CHUCK SELLERS

The outstanding Catawba, Chuck Sellers, from Savannah, Georgia, will be in the eighth grade at the Savannah Country Day School where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Sellers, teach. Chuck serves as president of his class at school and is also a member of the football, basketball and tennis teams.

Chuck is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Savannah, and he is president of the Pioneer Fellowship there. His main hobby is sports and his favorite sport is football. Chuck also collects pencils.

At camp this summer Chuck won second place in the archery contest, ranked as a Sharpshooter in riflery, won first place in the Catawba tennis tournament, and was recognized for his athletic ability.

JULIAN PHILPOTT

Tuscarora Julian Philpott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Julian Philpott, Sr., of Lexington, North Carolina, will be in the eighth grade at Lexington Junior High School next September. At school Julian is active in sports, being a member of the basketball team. He has also served as the president of his homeroom and as president of the Student Council.

Julian is a member of the First Baptist Church in Lexington and is president of his Sunday School department. He plans to enter the ministry. (Con't. page 4)

This year, Julian was very active in the Indian lore program and held the rank of Warrior in the tribe. He was also active in crafts, received the rank of Marksman First Class in riflery, and was cited for his athletic ability.

MITCH TUFTS

Mitch Tufts, who has done some of the art work for The Thunderbird this summer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge Tufts, Sr., of Atlanta, Georgia. He attends the Westminster School and will be in the tenth grade in September. He hopes someday to become an architect.

Mitch's hobbies include camping, water skiing, skin diving, and sketching. He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Atlanta and has served as an officer in his Sunday School class.

This is Mitch's fifth year at Sequoyah and he is looking forward to next year when he hopes to be a Tsaliman. This year he won his Stagshirt in the woodcraft program.
