

HONORS AND CITATIONS
FIRST FIVE-WEEK PERIOD

MARKSMANSHIP SPORTS:

Archery: Archery tournament winners:
Cherokee Victor Grubbs
Catawba Sandy Simmons
Tuscarora Dick Gregory
Iroquois Bill Reed

American Archer: Dick Gregory

Riflery: Most improved: Peter Palmer

SPORTS:

Tennis: Tournament winners:

Singles:

Cherokee Steve Usdin
Catawba Wes Mellow
Tuscarora Bryant Kittrell
Iroquois Lee Scarborough

Doubles:

Cherokee Steve Usdin and Mike Schewel
Catawba Wes Mellow and Charles Denby
Tuscarora Bryant Kittrell
and Chuck Sellers
Campwide Bryant Kittrell
and Chuck Sellers

Wrestling: 70-85 Fred Obrecht
86-100 Fred Irons
101-120 Eddie Glass
121-130 Joe Fleming
131-160 Chuck Sellers

LORES AND CRAFTS:

Craft Shop: Morgan Sommerville
Kim Beaty

Indian Lore: Strong Hearts Society (Older boy's program in Indian lore specializing on the woodcraft arts and hunting skills of the Indian. The ceremonial life and a deep spiritual understanding of the Indian is also a vital part of this society.) Julian Philpott, Greg Yadley, Bill Reed, Napier
Touchstone, Scott Burns, Kevin Ward, Phil Donehoo.
Outstanding camper: Tommy Cox

Nature lore: Dick Gregory, Bob
Gray, Mike Schewel

Scoutcraft: Passed most second class requirements:
Paul Garrison

Passed most first class requirements: Bob Goree

Qualified for camporee:
Reed Eberly, Eddie
Glass, Paul Garrison,
Ed Donehoo

Woodcraft: Allen Levy

HONOR CAMPERS

Each camp session, one outstanding boy is selected from each of the four tribes of Senior Camp as an honor camper.
These boys are selected on the basis of enthusiasm, participation, and progress in the various camp programs. Honor campers for the first five-week session are:

MIKE SCHEWEL (Cherokee). Mike is twelve years old and comes from Lynchburg, Va. His chief interests are tennis, nature and Indian lore, Scouts and hiking.

KIM BEATY (Catawba). This is Kim's third year at Sequoyah. His home is Griffin, Ga., and his hobbies include tennis, horseback riding, and nature lore. This summer Kim performed with the Sequoyah band as well as in the Sunday Musicales.

CHUCK SELLERS (Tuscarora) is from Savannah, Ga. Fourteen years old, Chuck is particularly fond of riflery, archery, and water sports.

PAGE CALHOUN (Iroquois) Page's home is Asheville, N. C., and this is his first year at Sequoyah. Besides square dancing, his interest lies in the out-of-doors as a fisherman and hunter.

Congratulations to all these fine young men!

JUNIOR CAMP HONORS AND CITATIONS
FIRST FIVE-WEEK PERIOD

Tournament Awards:

Tennis: Wes Tullis
Badminton: Lamar Crevasse
Pull-ups: Loring Ferguson
Box Hockey: Gene Crouch
Tetherball: Wes Tullis
Horseshoes: Keith Shirley
Rope Climb: Mike Peil
Softball Throw: Wes Tullis
Fifty Yd. Dash: Lester Collins
Archery: Jeb Carpenter, Dick
Shaffner

American Archer: Mike Peil, Mike Miles

Outstanding Wrestler: Mike Miles

Sportsmanship Award: Steve Gresham

Outstanding Athlete: Wes Tullis

Arts and Crafts: Dennis Blackburn, Steve Johnson, George Bishopric, Alan Eisner, John Adler, Russell
Cummings, Will Moore, Ricky Peters, Tim Boomer, Sidney Glass.

Nature Lore: Jeff Johnson

Outstanding Rider: Mike Miles